

K-Love is a vital part of the Midland community, my life, and the lives of many friends and family members. It is the only Christian station that encourages me daily and reaches out to the community by offering prayer and support for any listener! K-Love serves the public at large by fostering wholesome values and encouragement.